Sir:

It is requested that $900.00 be credited to our Deposit Account No. 19-0036 or be credited to the credit card account for Applicant's undersigned representative. It is asserted that credit for the following is due:

$300.00	Basic filing fee;
200.00	Examination fee; and
400.00	Search fee.

On September 21, 2006, Applicant filed, among other documents, a request to begin examination procedures in the United States, along with the basic filing fee of $300.00, the examination fee of $200.00, the search fee of $400.00 and the multiple dependent claim fee of $360.00. In payment of these fees, Applicant filed a Credit Card Payment Form (PTO-2038) authorizing the total fee amount of $1,260.00 to be charged to a credit card.

On September 21, 2006, the credit card was charged a total of $900.00 as follows: $300.00 basic filing fee; $200.00 examination fee; and $400.00 search fee. A copy of the relevant page of the credit card statement dated September 27, 2006 where the fees were charged is enclosed (irrelevant information masked). Applicant notes that while these fees were charged to the credit card and were charged to the attorney docket number for the present application, they were assessed to another, unrelated application not belonging to Applicant. See the application number under the "Description" column on the credit card statement.

On September 26, 2006, the sum of $1,260.00 was charged to the credit card, which represented these same fees as well as the $360.00 multiple dependent claim fee. A copy of the relevant pages of the credit card statement dated October 28, 2006 where the fees were charged is also enclosed (irrelevant information masked). These fees were assessed to the present application and attorney docket number.

Thus, it is respectfully submitted that Applicant double-paid the basic filing fee, the examination fee and the search fee. Accordingly, a refund is due to Applicant in the amount of $900.00. Early notification to that effect is earnestly solicited.

Respectfully submitted,

STERNE, KESSLER, GOLDSTEIN & FOX P.L.L.C.
